PORTAL

WEAVER HIGH SCHOOL

415 GRANBY ST. HARTFORD, CT. 06112

After four years of confinement and frustration, the senior class is finally BREAKING THROUGH

In Nineteen 92!

1992 is indeed a year of "Breaking Through." We, the Senior Class of 1992 have broken through the barriers that have been placed in front of our lives. We have proven that no matter how much bad air you place us in, no matter how many yellow lines you place in front of us, and no matter how many books you make us take home, nothing can stop us when we work together and strive to face the task. In 1992, we have overcome!!

The senior girls once again show their BREAKING THROUGH abilities, as they bulldoze through the fence in the back of WEAVER!

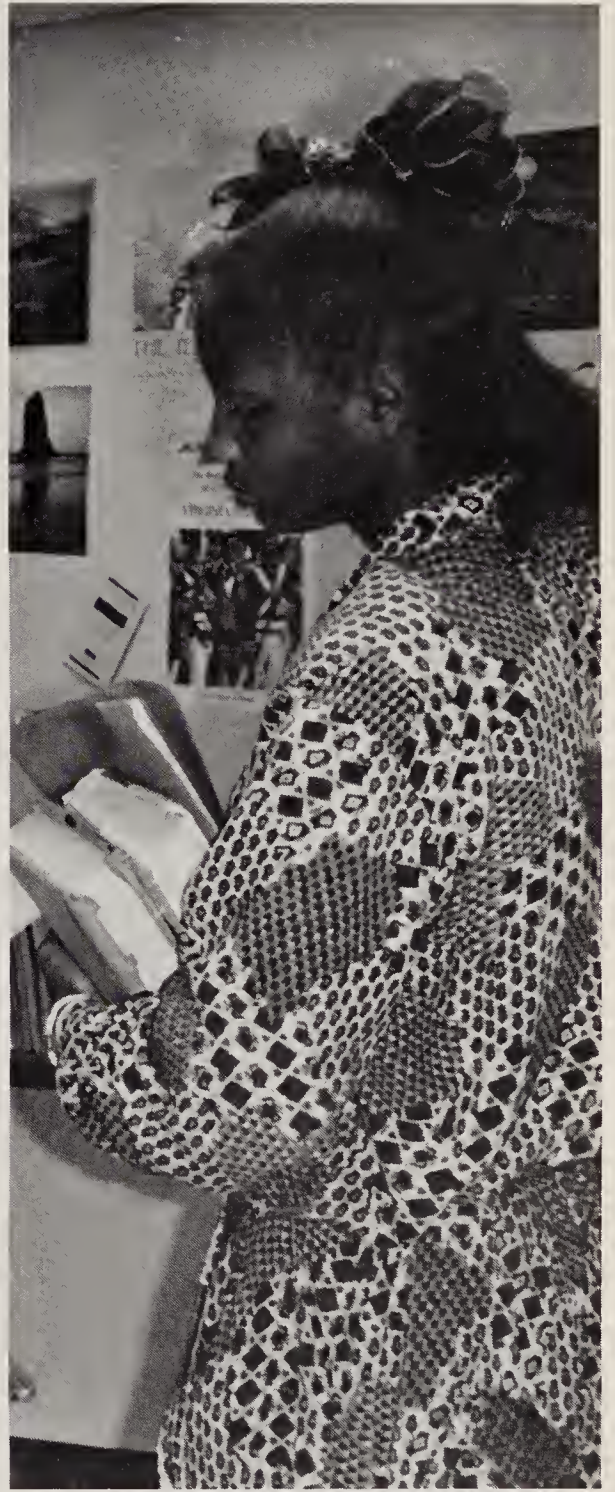

"I can't believe it!" "Finally!" These seniors can hardly believe their lungs, after four years the air is at last BREAKING THROUGH!

Mr. DiCicco says "What are they so happy about, I've been without air so long I can hardly tell the difference!"

This student is exhausted after completing her quest of breaking through the books this year!!

These senior girls show their BREAKING THROUGH skills as they burst across Mr. Davis' infamous "Yellow Line". One small step for seniors, one giant step for underclassmen!

The class of '92 starts their quest: The Breaking Through Process.

Breaking Through!

Every year the seniors proceed to their chosen section of the exterior of the school building. When all are in position, the senior group shots are taken. This is the first gathering of the seniors and emotional bonding has just begun. The air of energy, and anticipation was absorbed by the seniors!

Hey! Can you all say cheese?

Bye Bye! We're on our way.

Andre St. John wants to know "What's up?"
"Can I have my diploma?"

The excitement is so intense that the seniors explode.

Halloween

G.F.S As The Terminator.

Senior Gary Fong Sam. "Hasta La Vista, Weaver."

Debbie Hilliman gasps for her last breath of life.

Say baby do you have a lite? Senior Lakisha Johnson.

Head of the garbage collation at Weaver High, Senior Lavenia Brown.

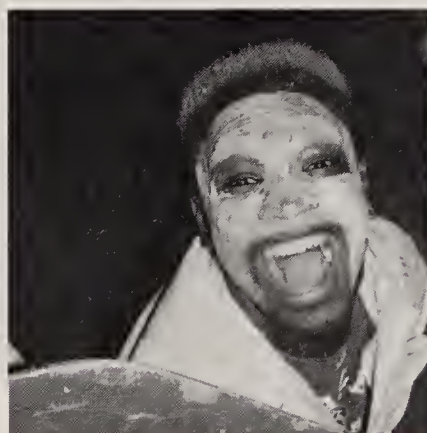

It really doesn't matter if your black, or white. T-Challa Wright

Help! Help! Help! Doom for death at the guillotine. Jody Jackson

Anteria Jenkins as the cheerleader from beyond. Felicia Brown as the amazon mummy. T-Challa Wright as Blackula's wife.

Dr. Doom waits for his next victim Paul Neal.

What do you think about this earring? I don't know, but I love this tie.

Homecoming

Presenting The Graduates Of 1992.

The Seniors were undefeated for two years in the Battle of the Classes. The Seniors are the best; they are numbered one just like they said.

Go Seniors! Go Seniors! Go Seniors!

Weaver Football players are a tower of power and they are a leading success; they are the mighty, mighty Beavers.

Senior Tamara Jenkins

GEE, A FLOWER JUST FOR ME?

Weaver High Senior Cheerleaders dance to that "Old Time Motown Feeling."

Sheena Edman and Cleopatra Gordon.

It's the girl's night out, fellas.

Adeline Murry and her Green & White weave.

The Weaver Seniors have skinned a Junior!

Booming Babies!

Activities

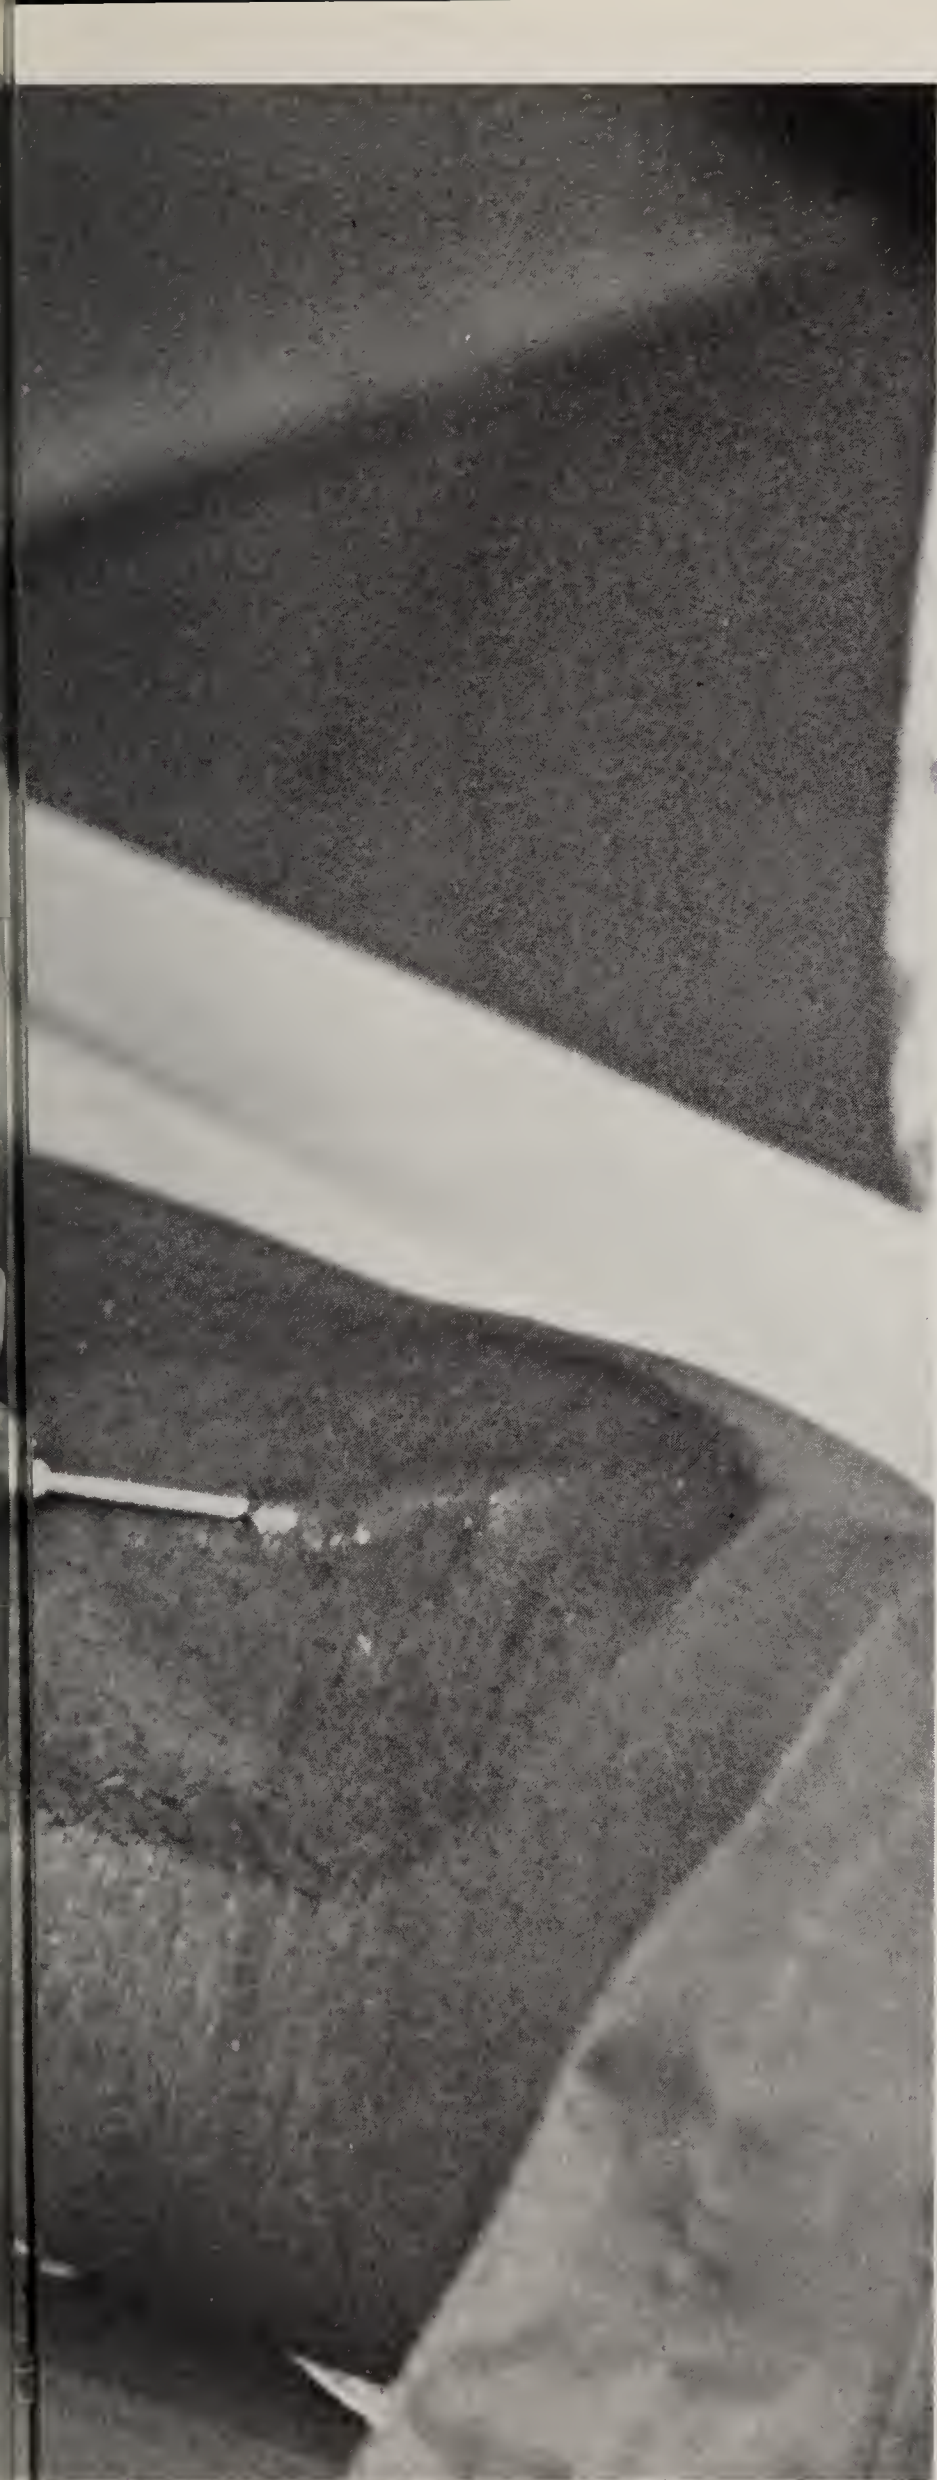

Weaver students are involved in many extra curricular activities. They are very diverse, ranging from giving blood, climbing mountains to broadcasting over the air waves on WQTQ.

Admiring the beautiful scenery, members of the Hiking Club use their photographic skills to capture the moment.

To hype up the Football Team the Drill Team puts on a stomping show, strutting their stuff.

Weaver students show their awareness of community service by donating their own blood.

During their last chance to defeat the underclassmen, seniors show their school spirit.

Senior Kim Oliver keeps the log during her show on QUTE FM.

Senior Erskine Plummer finally makes it to the top on an excursion with the Hiking Club.

Happy Writer's Club

The Happy Writer's Club, under the advisement of Mrs. Daisy Monignan-Cameron and Mr. John Funchion, meets weekly to foster an interest in children's literature by providing message-oriented stories geared towards youngsters in the lower elementary levels. The club has been in operation for four years and has been very successful and well received in the elementary schools (i.e. Rawson, Mark Twain, Annie Fisher, Noah Webster, Simpson Waverly, and Martin Luther King, Jr.).

Members include: Ann-Marie Clarke, Petulia Blake, Claudine Ellis, Simone Bentley, Keshia Henderson, Audrey Gilzene, Katrina Johnson, and Mrs. Daisey Monigan-Cameron.

DECA

The Weaver chapter of DECA, formally known as the Distributive Education Clubs of America, consists of approximately 65 members who are students of Mr. Robert Mooney's marketing classes. The club's intent is to develop leadership capabilities, civic consciousness, and to further the exploration of marketing careers. Meetings are held once or twice a month, and members participate in both state and national competitions.

National Honor Society

The Weaver High School chapter of the National Honor Society recognizes students who have demonstrated high scholastic achievement, leadership, character, and service. Members volunteer their time at the Kid's Fair, the Special Olympics, tutoring Rawson Elementary School and the San Juan Tutorial Program, and serving food to the homeless at the South Park End soup kitchen. Members also participated in the Habitat for Humanity project.

CPEP

The Connecticut Pre-Engineering Program introduces students to the world of engineering, math, and science and establishes ties with college contacts. Members participate in a number of activities, including CPEP Day, seminars, and the Midi-Mac program. The club goes on a number of fieldtrips and visits several colleges. Under the advisement of Mrs. Cassandra Bacote-Capiga, the club holds meeting every Friday, during which time they participate in a number of projects.

Gospel Choir

Members of the newly revived Gospel Choir, under the direction of junior Thomas Mitchell, include: Sandra Ramsay, Lavenia Brown, Natalie Archibald, Kerry-Ann Reynolds, Tyrone Herring, Dionne Welch, Keena Hicks, Jarrod Walker, Lawrence Mitchell. The choir participates in school assemblies, sings within the community, and participates in some of the productions of the Radio Drama Club.

Young Astronauts Club

The Weaver chapter of the Young Astronauts Club gives young astronauts a better understanding and appreciation of the practical benefits of mankind resulting from space exploration and the scientific basis for flight. Members of the club participate in a number of activities and experiments dealing with gravitational pull, flight travel, and plotting the distance of the night sky. Next year, the club plans to collect pennies from September until December for the Newington's Children's Hospital.

Members include: (row 1) Miriam Mercado, Brandy Christi, (row 2) Troy John, Eric Lee, Rafael Spears, (row 3) Mrs. Lester (Advisor), and Adrian Durham.

Environmental Club

The Environmental Club, CONN-HOPE, is a non-profit organization which serves to strengthen and unify existing environmental clubs, and help students form clubs in their schools. It is a network for communication between schools which, until now, have been isolated. The club's goals are to set up environmental clubs in every high school in Connecticut, to work with the Land Conservation Coalition of Connecticut, a coalition of environmental groups to protect irreplaceable natural resources and sought-after recreational sites, to be a well-established, active club for years to come, and to promote awareness of environmental problems. The club plans to host the state-wide CONN-HOPE meeting at Weaver and a joint meeting with clubs from schools throughout the state.

Members shown: Latisha Lewis, Sophia Fairweather, Nattalee Duckie, Ann-Marie Clarke, Stephanie Davis, Kimberly Christian, Naudia Bailey, Mrs. Loveland, and Mr. Morgan.

Latin Students' Coalition

The Latin Students' Coalition, under the advisement of Ms. Nilda Peric ii, provides an atmosphere where the Latin students would feel more comfortable sharing in their cultural similarity. There are approximately seventy-seven Latin students within the school and membership is open to all of them. This year the club sold candy gram a friend as a Valentine's Day fundraiser. The proceeds of this fundraiser were promoted to the Melvin Kardulis scholarship fund. The Latin Students' Coalition is involved in bilingual tutoring and plans to recruit Latin students from the middle school level.

Members include: (row 1) Jessica Garcia, Jessenia Amaral, Matilde Clausell, Josefina Zuniga, Jesus Vega, (row 2) Rebecca Schweitzer, Timothy Charlemagne, Vilmarie Vega, Sonia Rivera, Nancy Valesquez, and Edgardo Ruiz. The officers are: Vilmarie Vega (President), Marisol Garcia (Vice-President), Mariam Mercado (Treasurer), and Rebecca Schweitzer (Secretary).

The Culture Club

The CULTURE CLUB was started in the spring of 1988 with the purpose of having FUN while promoting enthusiasm for French and Spanish culture outside the class. The Club generally meets once a month to do ethnic crafts, learns how to cook various dishes, dances, sees movies related to the particular country, play board games and computer games, makes cards in their language, as well as many other kinds of activities. A highlight at Christmas time is the Fiesta and breaking of a stuffed Pinata. Membership is open to all Weaver students who have taken one year of a language class. Dues are five dollars per year. At the present time we have 86 dues paid members.

THE CULTURE CLUB relies on fundraising to offset the cost of bus transportation when it takes trips, as well as to provide supplies and materials for club activities. The bulk of the yearly profit is returned to the members via the annual auction and banquet. Members receive points through the year for their involvement in club sponsored activities involving service to the community, school, fundraising, and in meetings. The points are exchanged in francs and pasetas, and at the auction they are then exchanged into the common "oro" at the bank. Passports are issued and members pass through customs before entering the market place and banquet hall. Auction items are imported from various French and Spanish countries, or are purchased from national vendors. Approximately $1,000 is spent annually on this event.

FBLA

The Weaver High School Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America is the fourth chapter in the state and consists of over sixty full paid members. The club's goals are to: develop competent aggressive business leaders, strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work, create more interest of home business, and community, develop character, prepare for useful patriotism, encourage and practice efficient money management, encourage scholarship and promote school loyalty, assist students in the establishment of occupational goals, and to facilitate the transition from school to work.

Weaver FBLA participates in a number of activities. Members raise money by selling candy, locker mirrors, and helping in the running of the snack bar after school. The club gives to UNCF, the March of Dimes, participates in the San Juan Tutorial Program, and the Union Baptist Soup Kitchen. Members also participate in the Walk-a-thon, Radio-a-thon, and in competitive conferences. The club has exchange with Bolton High School, and hosted the area conference this year in March.

This year's officers for the Weaver chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America are: (row 1) Reporter Crissie Gordon, Secretary Elaine Williams, (row 2) Reporter Erskine Plummer, Treasurer Angela White, President Kim Oliver, Secretary Audrey Gilzene, and Vice-President Patrick Bowen. The advisors are: Head advisor Gloria Oliver, Patricia Whitaker, Mary Pruitt, Gloria Berry, Imogene Trapp, and Christine McCaskill.

Human Relations Club

The Human Relations Club gives students an opportunity to learn how to relate to people of different cultures and environmental backgrounds. The club participates in a number of activities. It sponsors the blood drives held at Weaver and participates in exchanges with school such as Wethersfield High School and Canton High School. This year, members have donated their time and service to the homeless, an orphanage, and did Christmas caroling for the convalescent. The club also participates in the March of Dimes.

Members include: (row 1) Anteria Jenkins (Vice-President), Debbie Hilliman (President), T-Challa Wright (Secretary), Jody Jackson (Treasurer), (row 2) Shondrell Scott, Tenisha Wilson, Mr. Miciewicz (Advisor), Frank Easterling, Jr., Tomekye Woods, and Rayshonda Smith.

Radio Drama Club

The Weaver Radio Drama Club, under the advisement of Mrs. Frances Sharp, gives students an opportunity to use their acting skills and talents while helping to develop communication, writing, and critical thinking skills. The club helps to elevate self-esteem, makes members more aware of their own history, and familiarizes them with more of their artists. The Radio Drama Club is a social outlet for students and its goal to be more informative to the community at large.

Membership within the club fluctuates from anywhere between twenty and forty students. Anyone can join, but parts have to be auditioned for. The club puts on two plays per year and participates in three to four assemblies per year. Members have also participated in an collaborative effort with the Watkins and Renbrook schools.

Student Council

Student Council, Weaver High's governing body, serves the student body with their expertise in following through with any situations or problems that may arise. Student Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance, Spirit Week, and the Talent Show. The group helps to resolve social issues within the school. This years officers for the Student Council are: Keva Lloyd (President), Lizette Cruz (Vice-President), Shondrell Scott (Secretary), and Frank Easterling, Jr. (Treasurer). The advisors are Ms. Nilda Perichi and Ms. Sally Bergen.

Wilderness School

Students from Weaver High School who attended the Wilderness School summer program include: Andrew Lawrence, David Channer, Khari Artis Gregory Gamble, Eric Pearson, Jamilla Hudson, Diana Wright, and Josefina Zuniga.

This program teaches survival skills in the out-of-door while building confidence in the participants. The advisor is Gail Hutchinson.

Lookout Staff

The Lookout Staff publishes its paper once a month. The Lookout informs the student body about what is happening within the school, the community, and the world at large. Students report on sports, school related issues, special programs and clubs. Members of the staff are: Aubrey Braithwaite (Editor), Damion Bennett, Shondrell Scott (Editor), Trina Scott, Jeanna Lfill, and Lawrence Mitchell.

Night Yearbook Staff

Senior Class Officers

The members of the Senior Class Executive Board include: Natasha Chambers (Prom chairperson), Angela White (Secretary), Kim Oliver (Vice-President), Paul Neal (President), Patrick Bowen (Outing chairperson), and Erskine Plummer (Treasurer). The advisors are: Mr. Charles Deleo, Mr. Nick Martoccia, Ms. Cari Colangelo, and Mrs. Clara Lee. The Executive Board, along with the advisors, have been busy making this year a very memorable one for the Class of 1992.

WQTQ

Here we have Natasha Chambers and Demond Hardgrove, Homecoming King and Queen for 1992.

Mrs. Sally Bergen, a swimming teacher at Weaver gives her acceptance speech after receiving "the teacher of the year" award given to her by the city of Hartford.

Danny Glover, one of the most respected black actors in America, interacts and signs autographs for his admirers.

Sharing his experiences with the students at Weaver, Mr. Glover tries to show them that there is always a way no matter how bad things seem to be.

The annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Assembly was dedicated to the memory of Melvin Kardulis and celebrated the the accomplishments of our young African American men.

Weavers Crowning Achievements

Weaver's students and teachers have always been on the cutting edge of achieving goals and recognition.

Mrs. Jannie Phillips was selected as the National Football League teacher of the month after being nominated by NFL player Eugene Robinson.

For the celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., held at Weaver, the students showed their appreciation through speech and their singing in his name.

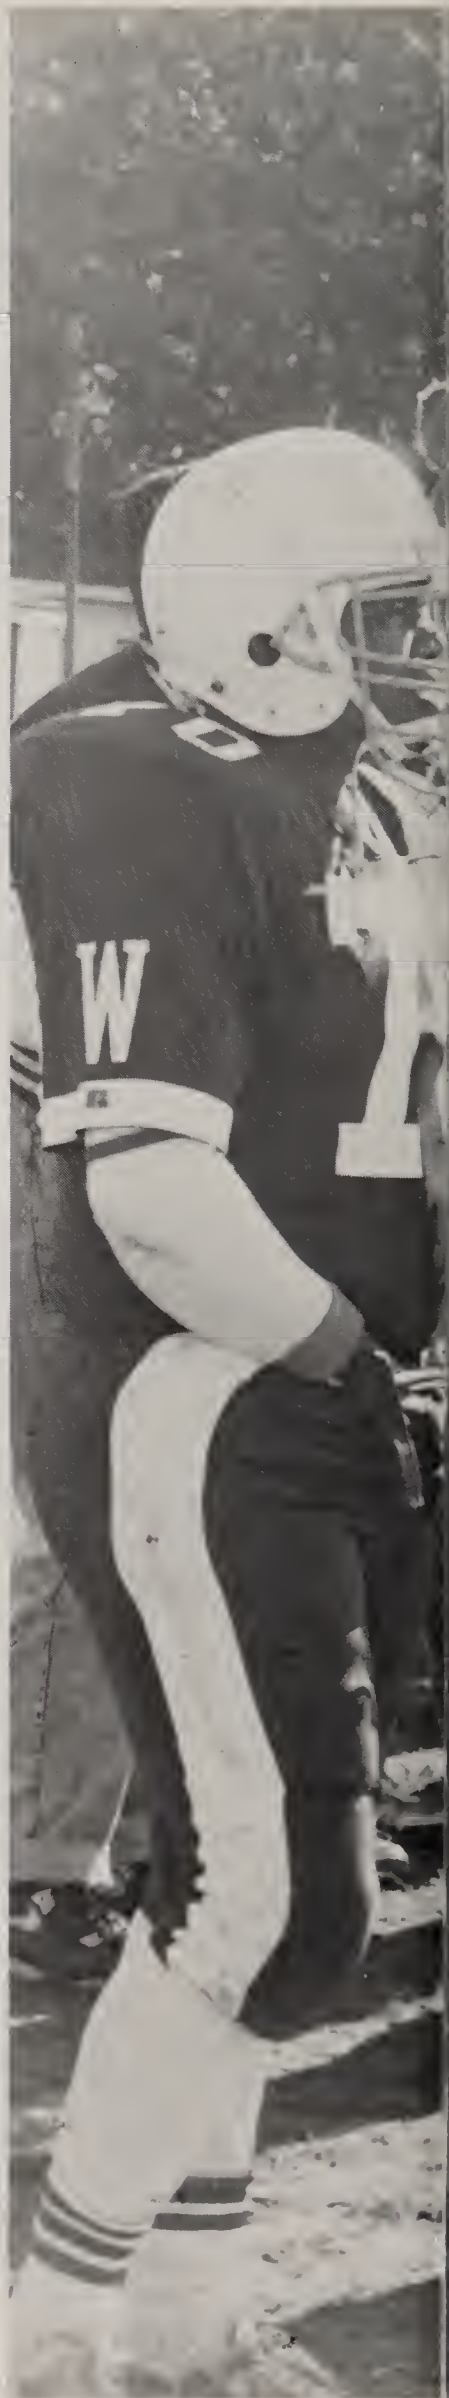

Athletics

Natural talent, strength, and determination have put Weaver High among the top in the state of Ct.

In Memory Of Melvin Kardulis - 1/6/74-12/30/91

To lose someone close to you is one of the hardest things in life to face. Losing you Melvin, has been especially hard for us because you were so close and so dear to many. Your innocent life we were able to share with you one day, and soon after it was gone. So many of us regret that we could not spend more time with you. But you are only gone for a little while to get some rest. We will see you once again soon. We can laugh with you, see your smile, and share the love and warmth you gave to us, one day soon, in that distant land. We love you and miss you very much Melvin. Peace!-Courtney Anderson

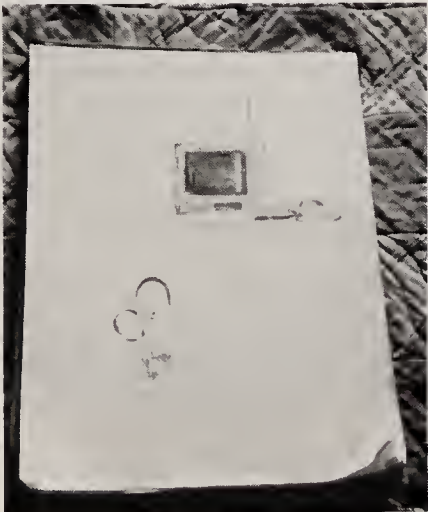

We're sorry that you are not with us any longer, but we are happy that your soul belongs to the Lord. We know you're no longer in pain. We are going to miss you.

Beautiful is the only word we can use to describe you. Whenever we looked at you, all we saw was happiness in those twinkling eyes and your beautiful smile.

Melvin, my warrior, you moved through life with such a positive sense of self-identity. You were a living example of Kujichagulia which means self-determination.

Battles fought. Some victories, some defeats, all tests and trials passed. Now, the young African Warrior lays down his spear and shield, and moves on.

Pam S. Joell
Managing Director

CAREER DEVELOPMENT IN BUSINESS FOR TALENTED MINORITIES

MISSION: The mission of INROADS is to develop and place talented minority youth in business and industry and prepare them for corporate and community leadership. The National Organization was founded in Chicago in 1970 and now has its headquarters in St. Louis. Starting in June 1990, INROADS/Greater Hartford is one of 37 affiliate offices around the country dedicated to developing qualified business and engineering professionals. INROADS/Greater Hartford started in 1989 as a satellite of the Fairfield-Westchester Counties affiliate. There are more than 1200 companies nationwide that sponsor INROADS' nearly 3500 college interns.

METHODS: INROADS recruits talented Hispanic, Black and Native American High School and College Students. These young people compete for career-related summer internships with participating corporations. The objective is to ensure that students understand the business environment and are prepared to contribute immediately upon entering Corporate America. Our goal is the conversion of our interns into full-time managerial tracked positions with their corporate sponsor upon graduation.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT: INROADS is privately funded through corporate fees, grants and contributions. Start-up funding was supplied by Travelers, $10,000; Aetna, $10,000; United Technologies, $20,000; Arthur Anderson, $3,000; CIGNA, $20,000; Connecticut Natural Gas, $5,000; Hartford Steam Boiler, $5,000; Ciba-Geigy, $5,000; Executive RE INC., $1,000; Connecticut Natural Gas provides offices.

INROADS/ Greater Hartford Internships: Summer 1990, 50-60 college internships at 16 sponsoring companies.
